Officer Down / Mass Casualty Triage

Officer Down/Mass Casualty Triage provides the latest medical training used by the military and law enforcement to treat major bleeding, trauma, and shock in a hostile environment. Attendees will learn many different methods of gaining control of a traumatic injury, how to properly evacuate the casualty to a safe location for further treatment or to identify other life threatening emergencies. This course will finalize the process by training to start the vital triaging process in the event of mass casualties.

This course is open to Law Enforcement as well as Fire/EMS with an objective of preparing not only LEO's to deal with life threatening traumatic injuries prior to EMS arrival but also preparing Fire/EMS to work within the “warm zone”. Specialized breakout sessions will be conducted for Law Enforcement & Fire /EMS to ensure both groups receive the skills applicable to their respective job functions, which pave the way for full Law Enforcement & Fire/EMS integration. Although not standard practice (recently recommended) this course will provide the tactics and direction for local Law Enforcement & Fire/EMS to move forward with a comprehensive critical / mass casualty incident or active shooter response plan.

Officer Down / Mass Casualty Triage

This is great opportunity for LE & Fire/EMS to work together beyond your normal "table top" or typical large scale scenario exercises. Fire/EMS will be involved, functioning and experiencing hostile actions within the "warm zone" alongside their LE counterparts.

No Second Chances. No Timeouts.
